Anna practices real estate and corporate law. She has considerable experience in all areas of real estate and land development law. She advises property developers, real estate companies, and government entities in all stages of the real estate transaction (i.e., due diligence, drafting the sale and development documentation and negotiating complex settlements).

Anna has a wealth of knowledge in commercial and retail leasing, including drafting ground leases, long term sub-leases, car parking licenses, disclosure statements, and default notices. She has represented both landlords and tenants.

Anna has been ranked as “Rising Star” for real estate in Legal 500 EMEA.
