Noran is an associate based in Afridi & Angell's Dubai office and practices in the dispute resolution team. With over seven years of experience in dispute resolution in Dubai, Noran specialises in DIFC litigation, on-shore litigation, arbitration and other dispute resolution mechanisms. She has particular experience in areas of commercial, employment, maritime and construction disputes, and holds a strong track record of working in several complex high-profile cases in the DIFC Courts.

Prior to joining Afridi & Angell, Noran worked as an Associate in DIFC litigation and arbitration at BSA Ahmad Bin Hezeem & Associates LLP, Dubai, for almost two years. Prior to that, she also worked as an Associate at Hamdan AlShamsi Lawyers & Legal Consultants in the DIFC litigation and arbitration department.

DIFC litigation matters:

- Carmon Reestrutura v. Antonio Cuenda (CA 003/2024) Represented the Claimant in a landmark decision by the DIFC Court of Appeal which expanded the jurisdiction of the DIFC Courts to issue worldwide freezing orders in support of foreign proceedings, overturning prior restrictions further to the Sandra Holding case.
- Sandra Holding v. Fawzi Al Saleh & others (CFI-092/2021 & CA-003-2023). Represented the Defendants in successfully setting aside a DIFC Court Freezing Order issued in respect of foreign proceedings. This was a landmark case which significantly restricted the scope of the DIFC Court's jurisdiction to issue freezing orders in support of foreign proceedings.
