Manaf advises on a wide range of corporate and commercial matters, including commercial transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and joint ventures.

His practice extends to regulatory and compliance, corporate governance, international transactions and corporate finance. Notably, Manaf's experience has been instrumental in facilitating complex deals for clients across various industries including virtual assets, banking & finance, insurance and real estate.

Prior to joining Afridi & Angell, Manaf spent five years in both in-house and private practice positions where he played a key role in developing bespoke legal solutions for corporate and commercial clients.
