Matthew is an associate at Afridi & Angell and practises in the corporate and commercial team. He joined the firm in 2024.

Matthew has over four years of experience in cross-border and domestic corporate transactions in various practice areas including mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, private equity and general corporate advisory matters. He has advised clients across a wide range of sectors including renewable energy, healthcare, real estate and financial services.

Prior to joining Afridi & Angell, Matthew practised as a corporate associate in the London office of an international law firm.

His notable transactions include:

- Advising a global carbon credit project developer listed on multiple stock exchanges on its listing onto AIM.
- Managing over 50 M&A transactions, with experience acting for both buyer and seller.
- Representing shareholders on the sale of their shares in 20 accountancy firms to a private equity-backed firm in a complex deal worth £80 million.
- Guiding a public company specialising in electric mobility and energy storage through its board restructuring, multi-million-pound convertible fundraising and share sale to new management.
- Assisting a public tech company with its AIM de-listing, tender offer, share repurchase and conversion to a private limited company.
