Ola joined Afridi & Angell in 2024 after spending three months as an intern at the firm. She supports dispute resolution and corporate lawyers across a diverse range of matters, and conducts legal research, drafts memoranda and reviews contracts and documents.

Ola actively participates in client meetings, gathers essential information, and ensures the smooth progress of cases and transactions. Her skill set has been honed through exposure to complex case and large commercial transactions.

Prior to joining Afridi & Angell, Ola spent three years in various roles at two leading law firms in Khartoum and later as an intern with an international law firm in Dubai.
