Yousif has a strong background in litigation, legal drafting and company formation. He supports the dispute resolution team through legal research, drafting, managing and submitting legal documentation, and coordinating with clients and legal authorities. Yousif also manages litigation procedures, from case registration through judgment and execution, leveraging electronic judicial platforms across UAE courts.

Prior to joining Afridi & Angell in 2025, Yousif worked as a legal researcher at a law firm in Dubai. He has also previously worked as a lawyer at a firm in Khartoum, with rights of audience before all Sudanese courts.
